

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I have seen many things come across “my desk” over the past 8 1/2 years. Some of it has been very hard and some of it has been a joy. I would count our Thanksgiving table as one of my favorites. The food, family and fellowship was delightful. Yes, we all ate too much turkey and dressing, but as the old saying goes “let’s eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we diet.” I’m looking forward to Sharon’s rendition of turkey sandwiches. I’m looking forward to leftovers. In the middle of it all, we shared this scripture before we ate. It comes from Psalm 111!

Praise the Lord!

I give Thanks to the Lord with my Whole Heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

Pastor Phil

Cameronian has always had a program on Christmas Eve as far back as I can remember. (The early 1940’s). My Daddy would take the children while our Mother stayed home and cooked. She worked in the mill and this was the only time she had to cook our Christmas dinner. Several people have questioned why we didn’t change this tradition. That is not an option as far as most are concerned.

A very fond memory of mine is of a lady in my Sunday School class who shared with me that she had to be out of town on Christmas Eve and she was so disappointed because she would miss getting her fruit bag. I told her I would be glad to put a bag in the refrigerator for her to get upon her return home. She was so happy and grateful. This was one of our senior ladies and she could have bought all the fruit she wanted but being with her church family on Christmas Eve for the retelling of our Savior’s birth and getting that fruit bag was a special tradition she always looked forward to as do so many other church members. We always have visitors that night who also enjoy the program and fruit bags.

Thanks to all who have given their time and efforts to keep this tradition alive at Cameronian.

The Worship Committee and Cameronian EPC invites you to join us for a Christmas experience that celebrates the heart of the season. Written and directed by the Chandler family. The Tiny Manger explores how the Nativity story continues to shape and steady us, even in a world that seems busier and louder each year. Through gentle humor, heartfelt moments, and music that lifts the spirit, the play invites us to slow down and rediscover the simple beauty of Christ's birth.

At the center of the story is a family learning to reconnect during their Christmas Eve together. As they share time, conversation, and faith, they begin to see one another with fresh appreciation. Their evening becomes a reminder that the joy of Christmas grows stronger when it is shared, and that the message of the manger still has the power to bring people closer.

We would love for you to be part of this warm and meaningful night. The Tiny Manger offers an opportunity to reflect, rejoice, and remember why the Nativity has endured through generations. Come join us as we celebrate the hope that Christ brings to every home and every heart.

The show begins on Christmas Eve at 6:30 PM.

Please pray for our session.

CHURCH MOUSE

I heard someone singing “the goose is getting fat!” Well, your Church Mouse isn’t!!!! I may have to visit one of your kitchens to find a wee crumb. Of course, my family will be with me. That means a full house! I will try to text you before I come...no need getting the cat involved!!

What happened to all of our good cooks? We need a Holiday Dinner! You can do it. After all, an apron is really a cape on backwards. You are super heroes! There now, don’t you feel better?

Some of the women of the church came by for a meeting. Boy, it was wonderful to hear their voices again! I overheard one of them saying, “I came, I saw, I forgot what I came for!” Now there is the story of my life! Hold on a minute and let me over think this. There must be a good word somewhere in that!

Christmas is really coming and if we are not together in spirit, singing His praises, giving thanks for all His blessings and sharing His love we have missed the reality of it! The Throne of God is a small, wooden manger full of hope, joy and love. Come and share in the celebration!

Your pastor stopped by to see me the other day. Said he'd been to one of those 'antique' sales. It was terrible. Seven people bid on him!

Just be glad 2025 is almost over. The new Year will have to be better. I may be wrong---but it's highly unlikely. After all, I'm the Cameronian Church Mouse. Assume I am right. It will save time.

God bless us everyone! (And may we remember to bless Him!)

BACKSTAGE ON CHRISTMAS EVE

All over our world, churches large and small are presenting Christmas plays and pageants. What amaze me is how much goes on backstage before the curtain ever rises. There are props to be made, costumes to be sewn, music to be rehearsed, lines to be memorized, and so much more.

On this Christmas, with all the attention on Bethlehem and the manger, think for a minute about what was transpiring backstage...in heaven, that is Our Lord was saying a farewell to His father. Laying aside His glory, He stepped over the portals of heaven into a smelly Eastern stable.

And what would He say to the Father as He departed, when the curtain rose on the greatest event in human history? I go "to do Your will."

That for which we had been waiting and to which the prophets had been pointing was coming...and for the express purpose of doing the Father's will.

All of heaven was looking over those portals that starlit night in Bethlehem. The "fulness of the time" (Galatians 4:4 KIV) had come. Although most on earth were oblivious, those in heaven were watching and worshipping. Remember: what is onstage is not always the whole story.

*Lord, to think of what You left to come to give me life moves me to want "to do Your will."
In Jesus' name, amen.*

HOPE YOU HAVE A WONDERFUL AND BLESSED CHRISTMAS
